➤ Rock the winter with us!

I love the festival season, especially if the weather plays along - like this year. Summer, sun, festivals, that's the way it has to be. Looking back on the hottest summer ever, with record-breaking temperatures recorded in many European cities, I can only say: It was awesome!

However, I am slowly starting to look forward to the cooler days at the end of the year. Not least because I am looking forward to shopping for loads of beautiful, cuddly sweaters, scarves, gloves, stylish caps and especially ugly Xmas jumpers. This year I'm definitely going to treat myself to a couple of new pieces.

In addition to awesome winter essentials, also available in plus sizes of course, we also have many other topics for you to look forward to! For example, the next installment of Star Wars at the end of the year: On November 15, the video game "Star Wars Jedi: Fallen Order" will be released and shortly before Christmas, Episode IX "Star Wars: The Rise of Skywalker" will hit cinemas. Disney lovers like me should also mark October 18 in their calendar, as this is when "Maleficent 2" will be released. I'm really looking forward to it!

Musically, the last quarter of the year is sure to be awesome, with a hefty touring schedule coming right up. Amon Amarth, Arch Enemy, Powerwolf, Eluveitie, Battle Beast and many more are ready to rock the whole of Europe in November/December.

Last but not least, gamers can look forward to a wide range of high-profile game releases: "Call of Duty: Modern Warfare" on 25.10 and "Pokémon Sword and Shield" on 15.11 promise to be very interesting. If that's not a great end to the year, I don't know what is.

Live Loud!

Near a bleak country road stands an old Victorian mansion. Long before it appears on the horizon, it announces itself as the glow emanating from its neon sign colours the night sky in pale turquoise. If you are tempted to follow the neon light like a moth and leave the highway, above the entrance to the old building you'll see the sign saying HALLOWEEN HOTEL.

The exterior of the hotel does not look very inviting. Only in a few places can you guess which colour the weather-beaten wooden fences may have once been. The windows are blinded by dust and the huge cobwebs are more than just decoration. Due to the secluded location and the uninviting exterior, few travellers come to the eerie-looking building, and that's the way it's intended. This place is reserved for very special guests only.

Founded as a health resort and neutral zone for psychopaths and monsters of all kinds, it serves as a shelter for those who need healing and rest after their gruesome acts. Dare to take a look at this dodgy spot with us and let the spooky creatures within inspire you to create an outfit for your Halloween party or put one together from our selection.

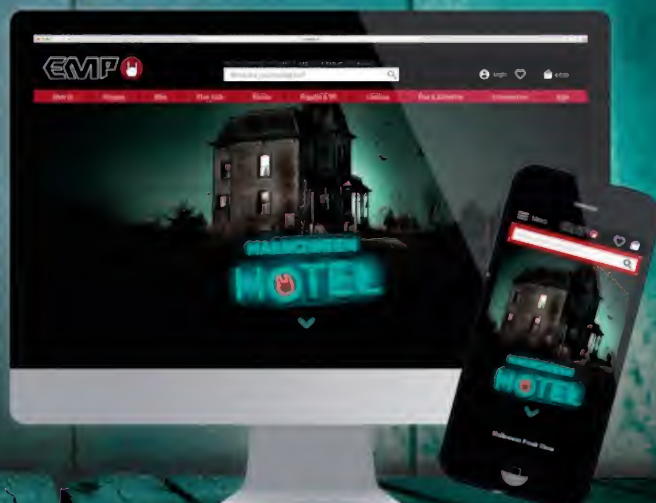

Lots of special promotions and exclusive discounts are also waiting for you in our EMP app, so make sure to download it for free in the app store of your choice and experience the horror in all its facets.

Be there and let the horror of our HALLOWEEN HOTEL drive you crazy.

HIGHWAY TO HELL

AN ALBUM FOR THE AGES

Can you believe that “Highway to Hell” is already 40 years old? You wouldn’t know it from the many classics contained on it which still sound as fresh as the day they were released. To mark this anniversary, we pay tribute to one of the greatest milestones in rock history:

1979 - a top year

If you were to make a poll among AC/DC fans about which is their favourite album from the Aussie legends, the two albums that would probably go head to head would be “Back in Black” and “Highway to Hell”. If you were to only include albums featuring the original vocalist Bon Scott, the matter would be clear and the latter would triumph. To date, this disc is one of the most influential albums of all time. Yet in 1979 it had a lot of competition in the global hard rock scene. Van Halen triumphed with “II”, Led Zeppelin released their last studio album “In Through the Out Door”, Whitesnake made their breakthrough with “Lovehunter” as did Molly Hatchet with “Flirtin’ With Disaster” and Journey landed a multi-million seller with ‘Evolution’. In addition, Motörhead brought out both “Overkill” and “Bomber”, Cheap Trick released their absolute best-seller with “Dream Police”, Saxon debuted with their eponymous album, Aerosmith released “Night in the Ruts”, Bad Company “Desolation Angels” and ZZ Top “Degüello”, while Foreigners came back with “Head Games”.

Hard work in the studio

Even so, the last record with Bon Scott before his much too early death in February 1980 managed to overshadow all these masterpieces. “Highway to Hell” was the group’s first cooperation with mega-producer Mutt Lange. After failed sessions in Australia and then Florida, the band flew to London in March 1979, where they fiddled with their new songs at the legendary Roundhouse Studios for two months, 15 hours a day. None of the predecessors had taken more than a few weeks to complete. But the result justified the drudgery in more than impressive ways. With tracks like “Girls got Rhythm”, “Touch too Much”, “If You Want Blood” and the irresistible title track, they created some of the best and most popular work of their career.

The big breakthrough

Even so, the quintet had lost nothing of its glorious roughness, its carefree recklessness and its uncouth street-killer charm. Mutt Lange, who was responsible for “Back in Black” and “For Those About to Rock We Salute You” as well as huge hits for artists such as Def Leppard, Bryan Adams and Nickelback, helped AC/DC develop its full potential and create an album for the ages. With “Highway to Hell”, the guys from Sydney quite rightly made their big breakthrough in the USA. And in the rest of the world they grew from a popular act to football stadium and arena-filling superstars.

Here you will find loads of really cool merch from the Australian legends. Loads of items are from our very own Signature Collection and only available from us. That rocks! Have fun browsing!

STAR WARS

In cinemas from 19.12!

Star Wars - the saga reaches its conclusion

Star Wars is so much more than a film series and video game line. Star Wars is a global cultural asset. Hardly any other topic is as loved and discussed as intensely as the Star Wars universe. The everlasting struggle between good and evil, paired with themes such as friendship, love, family, temptation, betrayal and retaliation are universal themes, no matter what you think about science fiction or fantasy. And now the time has come for the Star Wars franchise to strike back across all forms of media in the last two months of the year.

EA Games releases the extremely interesting-looking action adventure "Star Wars Jedi: Fallen Order" in November and in the same month the live action series "The Mandalorian" is launched on the new streaming service Disney+ in the USA.

On 19.12, the final chapter of the "Star Wars saga: The Rise of Skywalker" will reach cinemas. The first trailer promises, as usual for Star Wars, impressive imagery, intense fighting and loads of emotion. We're all excited to see how the saga comes to an end.

With only a handful of Resistance rebels rescued by Luke Skywalker and Rey, the future looks truly sinister. But the first order has had to accept big losses too. It remains to be seen how the conflict between Kylo Ren and Rey will turn out and whether the all-embracing Force can be finally brought to equilibrium.

I personally cannot wait to dive back into the Jedi and Sith worlds and follow the stories from a galaxy far far away.

We've got loads of great merch waiting for you. From retro to trendy to stylish, you'll find everything from your Star Wars favourites, whether as a gift or as a treat for yourself. Some items are only available from us at emp.co.uk/starwars. And even though I already own five Star Wars shirts, I'm sure that one or two other cool pieces will find their way into my wardrobe.

Have fun browsing and may the Force be with you!

A woman with short brown hair and bangs is wearing a black hooded jacket with a small brown label on the inside of the hood that says "URBAN CLASS". She is also wearing a black turtleneck and large hoop earrings. She is sitting on a camouflage patterned surface. The background is a blurred window with a grid pattern.

Here you'll find loads of original street style looks and cool basics from our very own design workshop. RED by EMP stands for uncompromising looks that stand up to any occasion. Cool, relaxed, and comfortable. There's lots more to be found at emp.co.uk.

Mix and match!

Your EMP outfit advisor

The key piece in this relaxed outfit is the parka from RED by EMP. The jacket offers loads of pockets for plenty of storage space as well as a place for cold hands on frosty days too. Combine it with these The Nightmare Before Christmas jeans and RED sweater and you're guaranteed to look both chilled out and stylish.

Notice regarding battery disposal

Batteries do not belong in normal household waste. As a consumer, you are legally obliged to return used batteries. You can drop off your old batteries at public collection points in your community or anywhere that batteries are sold. Of course you can also return used batteries that are available from us to the following address:

E.M.P. Merchandising Handelsgesellschaft mbH
Used batteries
Darmer Esch 73
DE-49811 Lingen, Germany

The symbols shown on batteries have the following meaning: The crossed-out bin symbol means that the battery must not be disposed of with household waste. Pb = battery contains more than 0.004% by mass of lead, Cd = battery contains more than 0.002% by mass of cadmium, Hg = battery contains more than 0.0005% by mass of mercury
